Speaker and Worship Leader

WALKING IN HUMBLE FAITH

Chrissie's heart desire is to encourage, equip, and empower women to fulfill their God-created purposes. She is passionate about reaching the hearts of women and showing them how the Lord can give them healing and hope. She does this by teaching you how to:

"CHRISSIE IS PASSIONATE, KNOWLEDGEABLE, AND WELL SPOKEN. I HAVE HAD NUMEROUS OPPORTUNITIES TO HEAR HER SPEAK AND SHE HAS A REMARKABLE WAY OF SHOWING US HOW SCRIPTURE IS RELEVANT IN OUR LIVES EVERY DAY. HER LOVE FOR THE LORD SHINES THROUGH AND EXCITES OTHERS TO SEEK HIM."

- Heidi Logsdon, Attendee

"HER GODLY DEMEANOR AND NEARNESS TO GOD IS EVIDENT AND REFRESHING. HER MESSAGES GIVE BIBLICAL ANSWERS AND APPLICATIONS TO LIFE'S ANXIETIES, TROUBLES, FEARS, AND QUESTIONS."

- Michael Herrera, Pastor

- Reject insecurity by realizing you are a cherished masterpiece of God.
- Discover your God-created purpose by focusing less on self and more on the Creator Himself.
- Overcome fear of failure by trusting that God has you securely in His hands.
- Replace striving and brokenness with the peace of walking alongside the Lord.

Chrissie is open and honest, speaking from her personal struggles in these areas, and sharing what the Lord has taught her. Her vulnerability and passion help her connect with women, as her real-life struggles resonate deeply with their own. She has been a speaker at MOPS, PWOC, and women's ministry events.

As an Army wife, Chrissie has been blessed to meet women from all ages, stages, and walks of life. Those experiences have taught her that we are all so very similar in our humanness. We want to be seen, to be supported, to be loved. We long to find fulfillment, to live out our calling, to feel like our life has purpose. Chrissie desires to help you realize God's joy and contentment in life.

Chrissie has spent years serving women through both Army volunteer opportunities and women's ministry roles. She has led Bible studies in church, PWOC, and even her own home. Through all of these experiences she has fallen in love with her call to minister to women.

Chrissie is an ordinary, small-town girl who hates exercise but loves chocolate and potato chips. She is married to Brian the sweet boy turned love-of-her-life from her high school French class. They have two energetic boys, Brock and Chase, who share in the adventure of Army life with them.

AVOIDING UNDONE

It is so easy to become consumed with fulfilling our purpose, with making sure our life counts for something. That striving can leave you physically and emotionally exhausted, overwhelmed, lost. . . undone. Chrissie will reveal truths learned from the life of Moses to teach you to:

- Release self-inflicted pressure by allowing God to take the pressure for you.
- Stop getting in God's way and start doing things His way.
- Exchange the tiresome effects of striving for the peace of walking with the Lord.

DISCOVERING FREEDOM

Insomnia. Stress eating. Irritability. These are a few of the many common symptoms brought on by worry, fear, and anxiety. If we're not careful, worry, fear, and anxiety can consume our thoughts and steal our peace. Chrissie uses personal stories and Biblical truths to encourage you to:

- Escape the suffocating grip of worry and embrace the peace that comes from the Lord.
- Replace the consuming symptoms of fear with true delight in the Lord.
- Develop a practical plan you can practice today to free yourself from anxiety's snares.

CONQUERING INSECURITY

Insecurity. It sneaks into our minds and begins to consume our hearts. It causes us to question our abilities and self-worth. It cripples us, it binds us. . . it hurts. Chrissie shares her past struggles with insecurity and lessons the Lord has taught her so that you can:

- Reject the enemy's weapon of insecurity and replace it with God's view of who you are.
- Stop questioning the value of your life and realize what you're really worth.
- Castoff insecurity and walk confidently in who God created you to be.

"CHRISSIE IS SUCH A PLEASURE TO WORK WITH AND TRULY A WOMAN OF GOD. . . NOT ONLY DID SHE TOUCH THE HEARTS AND LIVES OF THE WOMEN IN ATTENDANCE WITH THE ENCOURAGING MESSAGE THE LORD HAD GIVEN HER, SHE ALSO LEAD US IN BEAUTIFUL PRAISE AND WORSHIP. IF YOU HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO HEAR CHRISSIE OR EVEN HOST HER AT YOUR CHURCH, I ENCOURAGE YOU TO DO SO. YOU WILL SURELY BE BLESSED!"

- Sabrina Fain, Women's Ministry Coordinator
