

Introduction

Chrissie is a Bible teacher, speaker, and writer. She is the founder of Humble Faith Ministries and co-founder of Joy in Faithful Living. She is passionate about equipping and empowering women to fulfill their God-given purposes as they learn to walk alongside Jesus.

Chrissie is married to Brian, the cute boy from her high school French class. They have two energetic boys, Brock and Chase, who are living their best teen-life's and giving Chrissie lots of grey hairs!

She loves to take walks with her husband, listen to her boy's zany stories, cheer loudly at their sporting events, and chat with friends over coffee. When she's not doing those things, you can usually find her curled up with a good book.
